Good morning Gaurav, its been six months since the lounge at the T2 International airport has since been opened. All the pots purchased for plants inside the lounge is lying empty outside the lounge corridor. Understand a vendor has finally been selected to supply the plants has been selected and the procurement dept has raised the P.O which is doing the rounds for Approval. Yesterday the AAI senior officials who were on their rounds questioned on the planters being placed at the passage. Understand the Chairman AAI is on a holiday at Pondicherry and is scheduled to return back to Delhi this week end and in all probability make a visit to the T2 international terminal. Would appreciate if you could have the PO and payment released today so the planters wi... Read more
