Dear Sandeep,

We will wait for MenuMaster..

We had gone ahead with BlueStar instead of Hosizaki, on recommendation of Capex Purchase team, and deeply regretting the decision. The equipment is already broken after a couple of months, and Hosizaki is still in a better condition after 10 yrs..

Regards,
Sudipto

Dear Abhishek ,

With reference to the trail email, I would like to highlight that Menumaster has a longer lead time of 6-8 weeks and is currently out of stock in the market.

I would suggest to go ahead with Butler /Karma brands which we are already supplying to all the TFS NSO & existing outlets

Thanks & Regards

Sandeep Bhat

Dear Sir,

We are already using 5nos of Menumaster in our qsr outlets & lounge, which is giving better result what we used before brands like IFB during busy hours. We are using almost for the last 4-5 months and no breakdown have been seen. As per maintenance Magnetron of Menumaster and durability is far better than another brand. Its run smoothly and continuously as heating element have a better resistance but other brands hanged and stop working in the middle. Would request you to look into the matter and approve the same.

Regards
Abhishek
