Shadab,

Had reviewed the item , if during bill certification the measurement of wiring is separately given for Dilli street then vendor's demand is justified .

Dear Sir,

At the start, I had provided the rates including the wire, Later I was asked by the purchase team to quote according to the Budweiser PO, and to quote for the wire separately. In the budweiser PO, wire has been quoted separately. Also please read the description mentioned both are same, yet at one site wire was separately quoted and at one it is being said that is included. Also do tell me where exactly is there mentioned any word such as armoured cable or something. Side by side I have placed dilli streat and Budweiser description for wiring devices, word to word all the details are similar, then tell me why in the budweiser boq, wire was quoted separately.
